

FRAME AND WHEEL

NEW COMMISSION EFFECTIVE 1 APRIL 2020

About the commission

Frame and Wheel provides its services on a Cost Plus basis. This means that the seller pays the costs related to the sale of the item (eBay, Pay Pal, VeloDrone or any third party pick up fees) plus a scaled commission to Frame and Wheel. The commission is 35 percent on the first five hundred dollars of the hammer price of the item and 12 percent on the amount above that.

HAMMER PRICE ($)	COMMISSION (%)
$0.01 to $500	35
$500 and above	12

IF THE HAMMER PRICE OF YOUR ITEM IS:	YOUR SHARE IS:
$100	50%
$1000	60%
$3000	70%

What you get in return for the commission

You are getting excellent value when you consider the time you are saving and the work you are eliminating. This is some of what we do to get your items sold:

- Inventory your items and send you a copy for your records.
- Sort and clean your items.
- Create professional images and detailed written descriptions.
- Upload and manage your the listings.
- Promote your items worldwide on our social media platforms.
- Answer all the emails that come in.
- Pack and ship the items in new custom made boxes.
- Resolve returns, lost items or feedback disputes.
- Send you payment within 30 days.

Your use of the service supports a small business that is dedicated to the cycling community in New England and beyond. Thank you!